

BTEC SPORT TEACHER TRAINING

WITH IAN WOOD

BTEC Sport: Using diverse teaching and assessment material to enhance your BTEC Sport courses

This course is for staff involved in the delivery and assessment of BTEC Sport programmes. The ideas and example material used during the day are applicable to both the 2010 specifications and new 2012 (level 2) specifications

During the workshop you will:

- Gain practical and classroom based ideas to implement on your course
- Improve your capacity to develop engaging and work-related learning and assessment activities
- Develop your understanding of how to improve learner interest, motivation and achievement
- Start thinking differently!
- Get help to prepare individualised and learner focused tasks – utilising readily available material
- Develop confidence to prepare inspiring and work related lessons and assessments

You will therefore get the opportunity to:

- ✓ Observe a range of methods that you can use to help deliver and assess BTEC Sport units
- ✓ Develop your ability to adapt and use material to help with delivery and assessment of learners
- ✓ Improve your confidence in using diverse delivery and assessment tools, such as videos, witness statements and oral questioning
- ✓ Enhance your understanding of assessment methods in an interactive and enjoyable environment
- ✓ Differentiate between pass, merit and distinction work
- ✓ Ask questions on your existing delivery and assessment methodologies

WORKSHOP FORMAT:

The workshops will be delivered practically, with delegates actively taking part in learning and assessment activities, commenting on their suitability and making suggestions for improvement. Delegates will also get the opportunity to develop their own learning materials from resources provided on the day. This is a practical day where delegates will be expected to contribute throughout - although all activities will take place within a classroom environment.
